

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

The information about the costs of the card described in this application is accurate as of October 2018. This information may have changed after that date. To find out what may have changed, call us at 800-279-0007 or write us at American National Bank, Customer Service, P.O. Box 2139, Omaha, NE 68103.

You may not qualify for the lowest APR referenced above. Your APR will be established based on our review of your credit report, this application and other information.

Paying Interest: You can avoid paying interest on purchases as described above, but there is no grace period for cash advances or balance transfers.

Terms are Subject to Change: Except as otherwise required by law, account terms are not guaranteed to stay in effect for any particular period of time. Interest rates, fees and other account terms are subject to change by us at any time and for any reason.

How We Apply Your Payments: Subject to applicable law, we may apply payments to balances with lower APRs, including introductory APRs, before balances with higher APRs (payments in excess of your minimum payment will generally be applied first to balances with higher APRs).

Reports to Credit Bureaus: We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

Notice to New York Residents: New York residents may contact the New York State Department of Financial Services by telephone (1-800-342-3736) or visit its' website (www.dfs.ny.gov) for free information on comparative credit card rates, fees and grace periods.

Notice to Wisconsin Residents: No provision of a marital property agreement, a unilateral statement under section 766.59 of the Wisconsin statutes, or a court decree under section 766.70, adversely affects the interest of the creditor unless the creditor, prior to the time credit is granted, is furnished a copy of the agreement, statement or decree, or has actual knowledge of the adverse provision when the obligation to the creditor is incurred. If you are a married Wisconsin resident, you agree that your obligations to us will be considered incurred in the interest of your marriage or family.

Notice to California Residents: An applicant, if married, may apply for a separate account.

Notice to Ohio Residents: The Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.
